Praise for past SCF tournaments:

“That there are fencers [who are] still taught to observe right-of-way and to understand the proper sequence of actions and counteractions is reassuring—my compliments to you.”

—Maestro William Gaugler, author of The Science of Fencing
founder of the Fencing Masters Program at San Jose State University

”BRAVO!”

—Maestro Charles A. Selberg, author of Foil foil team gold medalist, 1970 World Masters Fencing Championships

“The [2004 SCF] Fall Open was an absolutely wonderful tournament! It is exactly the type of fencing experience that I want for my students because it encourages the process of learning fencing and teaches respect for all. Central to this process was the earnest, honest, clear and respectful manner displayed by the directors who are, after all, teachers through example, of the judges and fencers. I will enthusiastically encourage my students to participate in future events held under your sponsorship.”

—Maestro John McDougall, Sword and Mask Fencers (Ashland, Oregon)
